

SPRING BREAK CAMP ATTENDEES TAKE PART IN ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARADE

This year's Parks and Recreation spring break camp attendees at Holcom Park Recreation Center and the Special Populations spring break camp attendees at East Lawrence Recreation Center collaborated on a float for the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade in Downtown Lawrence. A total of 81 children participated in the two camps. The floats were put together by Rod Hofer and Jay Johnson, members of the LPRD staff, and the camp attendees made posters and decorated the floats. Some of the older children walked along the float and handed out candy to the parade goers. Besides the parade, the spring break attendees enjoyed other activities, including: bowling, swimming, Jump4Joy, nutrition education with the OrganWise Guys and a field trip to Orange Leaf Frozen Yogurt.
