9TH STREET CORRIDOR
IN THE LAWRENCE CULTURAL DISTRICT

lawrence center

The Lawrence Arts Center's Free State Festival is a five day celebration of film, music, art and ideas!

Sites throughout the burgeoning 9th Street Corridor in the Lawrence Cultural District will feature outdoor projections in a unique, immersive experience of motion art in unexpected venues

The Free State Festival includes a competitive film festival! Engaging films from the national festival circuit will be programmed with accompanying guests for post screening q&as

The University of Kansas will work with the Lawrence Arts Center to curate a series of ideas presented in both panel and lightening round formats in sites throughout the district

Partnerships with area organizations such as the Lawrence Public Library, Wild West Film Fest, Women of Lawrence Film (WOLF), music venues and food vendors will infuse the festival with vibrancy, community spirit and local color

Innovative educational opportunities in digital media and film will be offered to area youth organizations such as Van Go, Inc and the Boys & Girls Club of Lawrence
